

The

Lundian

Special Issue 15/110

An International Magazine

Photo at Left: Interns Martina Gebert, Anne Göther, Nadia Gebril and Samra Mussie discuss Lundian articles on Sweden's integration and voting rights policies.

If they are discriminated in any maner, they'll report it. They are also going to vote in this year's elections. (See info on the parties on the next page)

Are You?

Photos: English International's NGO Representatives at Integrationsverket's Symposium on Discrimination in Stockholm, December 7th and 8th, 2001

Left Column: EI group from Lund (James, Gary, Arthur, Ruffin, Nadia and Stanley), Amir and Nadia, Nadia and Jose Diaz (Integrationsverket).

Above: Paul Lappalainen (Integrationsverket) and friend; Gary, James and Sabuni networking, Gary James and a new friend. More photos on next page. (Great food and music. Great Event!)

2002 -- An Election Year in Sweden

What happens to you and your loved ones may depend on who gets elected, which party sits in government at the county and national levels. If you are 18 years old or older, have lived in Sweden for at least three years, have a permanent residence permit (PUT), or are a Swedish citizen YOU CAN VOTE !

To find out where the parties stand on important issues such as immigration, integration, housing, health care and education, take a look at their websites:

Centerpartiet – (The Center Party)
www.centerpartiet.se
Folkpartiet – (The Liberal Party)
www.folkpartiet.se
Kristdemokraterna – (The Christian Democrats)
www.kristdemokrat.se
Miljöpartiet – (The Environment Party)
www.mp.se
Moderata samlingspartiet – (The Moderate Party)
www.moderat.se
Socialdemokraterna – (The Social Democratic Party)
www.sap.se
Vänsterpartiet - (The Left Party)
www.vansterpartiet.se

Study their websites and decide for yourself which party to vote for. Good Luck!

Have You Been Discriminated Against Because of your Gender, Religion, Ethnicity?

If so, then call for a FREE CONSULTATION on your case.

English International's Action Group for Positive Integration can help you develop your case for presentation to the your union representative, the DO or a lawyer.

We are specialists in Swedish Anti-discrimination legislation, and have been an advisory centre since 1987.

For an appointment call 070 - 654 2126.

Photo shows anti-discrimination lawyers Jerry Leaphart, Paul Lappalainen, and Nicos Trimikliniotis at the Stockholm NGO Forum in December.

Photo: The Lundian.

More Photos from the NGO Forum:

1 - Dancing in the Dark (Joe Frans in tie.)s

2- NGO reps listen to one of the speakers.

Ethnic Discrimination

How Will the Law Protect YOU?

Contact

The Ombudsman Against Ethnic Discrimination

DO

for Advice in English and other languages

www.do.se

Tel 08 - 556 053 500

The Lundian is published by the English International Association of Lund, Box 722, S-220 07, Lund. (Office Sandgatan 2 AF Building 4th floor.) Phone: +46 70 654 2126. E-mail: englintern@hotmail.com Website: www.thelundian.com Publisher and Managing Editor:

M. Arthur Robinson Diakité
Thanks to Afrosvenskarnas Riksförbund (Stockholm) and Integrationsverket for making the NGO Forum in Stockholm a success.

ISSN 1404-9511 (c) 2002 English International

This Special Edition by Johan Sjögren